

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives were deeply saddened by the recent news of the untimely death of young John Christopher Nelson, of Jefferson City, Missouri; and

Whereas, John Christopher Nelson was a senior at Cole R-V High School in Eugene, Missouri, and formerly attended St. Peter Catholic School; and

Whereas, John Christopher Nelson had planned to attend Linn State Technical College beginning this fall; and

Whereas, John Christopher Nelson enjoyed deer hunting with his grandfathers, spending time with his friends, playing paintball, and working on his computer; and

Whereas, John Christopher Nelson will be forever profoundly missed and loved by his parents, Donald Wayne Nelson and Mary Ann Redel Nelson; his sister, Tina Nelson; his paternal grandparents, James and Rebecca Nelson Sr; his material grandparents, Lawrence and Anna Mae Redel; and his maternal great-grandmother, Hilda Winkelman:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family of John Christopher Nelson; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the family of John Christopher Nelson.
